Kevin Beaulieu, your years of volunteer leadership have distinguished you among our young alumni. From your involvement in the Alumni Admissions Program to your current position as co-chair for the Class of 1989’s board of directors, your efforts have served to bring students and alumni closer to WPI.

Your loyalty to WPI began during your undergraduate years as a member of the national service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega. As a loyal supporter of your class, you have served generously as a member of the class board of directors, and a volunteer for Reunion and Homecoming.

You continue to serve your alma mater as a member of the Alumni Admissions Program, contacting and engaging prospective students and their parents through your participation at college fairs and other admissions activities. Most recently, as a member of the Web Site Redesign Advisory Board, your service has been invaluable, helping shape the content and visual imagery of the alumni site. As a class representative on the Alumni Leadership Council, your dedication to the mission of connecting alumni to their alma mater is unmistakable.

You have been earnestly involved in all alumni-related activities you’ve been asked to join, and you continue to be an active and effective volunteer, one who has made a difference for this university. Kevin Beaulieu, in recognition of your long-standing commitment to your alma mater, it is an honor to present you with the John Boynton Young Alumni Award for Service to WPI.
