9. REPRESENTATIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION. In the performance of this Agreement, Contractor expressly represents that the offering of services described herein is as an independent contractor and is entitled to be retained and compensated as such. The services described herein are offered to the general public. It is understood and agreed that Contractor will be subject to the control and direction of University only as stated herein and as to the intended result of Contractor’s work and not as to the manner, method or means by which it is accomplished. The relationship created by this Agreement extends only to the performance and completion of this project.

Contractor further hereby exonerates, indemnifies and holds harmless University, its trustees, officers, employees, and agents, for all liability, losses, damages or expenses from any and all fines, suits, claims, and demands, including reasonable attorneys fees, arising from any actions of any kind or nature resulting from any acts, errors or omissions of Contractor as a result of performing services to be rendered hereunder, provided, however, that such indemnification shall not apply to any fines, suits, claims, and demands resulting from the sole negligence of Department or University.

Neither Contractor nor its employees shall have the right to make any contracts or legally binding commitments for or on behalf of Department or University. This Agreement may not be assigned or otherwise transferred without the express prior written consent of University.
