

Hamish Blackman
Principal, Breakthrough Collaboration

Hamish graduated from Middlebury College, and received his Master's Degree from Lesley College. A trained mediator, Hamish consults with organizations on factors impacting productivity and morale, and works with groups to resolve conflicts. He has extensive experience providing training and related activities to organizations in the public, private, and non-profit sectors. He has worked with departments and programs at 22 Colleges and Universities. A sought after speaker, Hamish has presented programs at the CUPA – Northeast Conference (2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009), Southern (2007, 2008, 2009), Mid-West (2009), and National (2008, 2009).